A Time For Us

Lynn Hechel

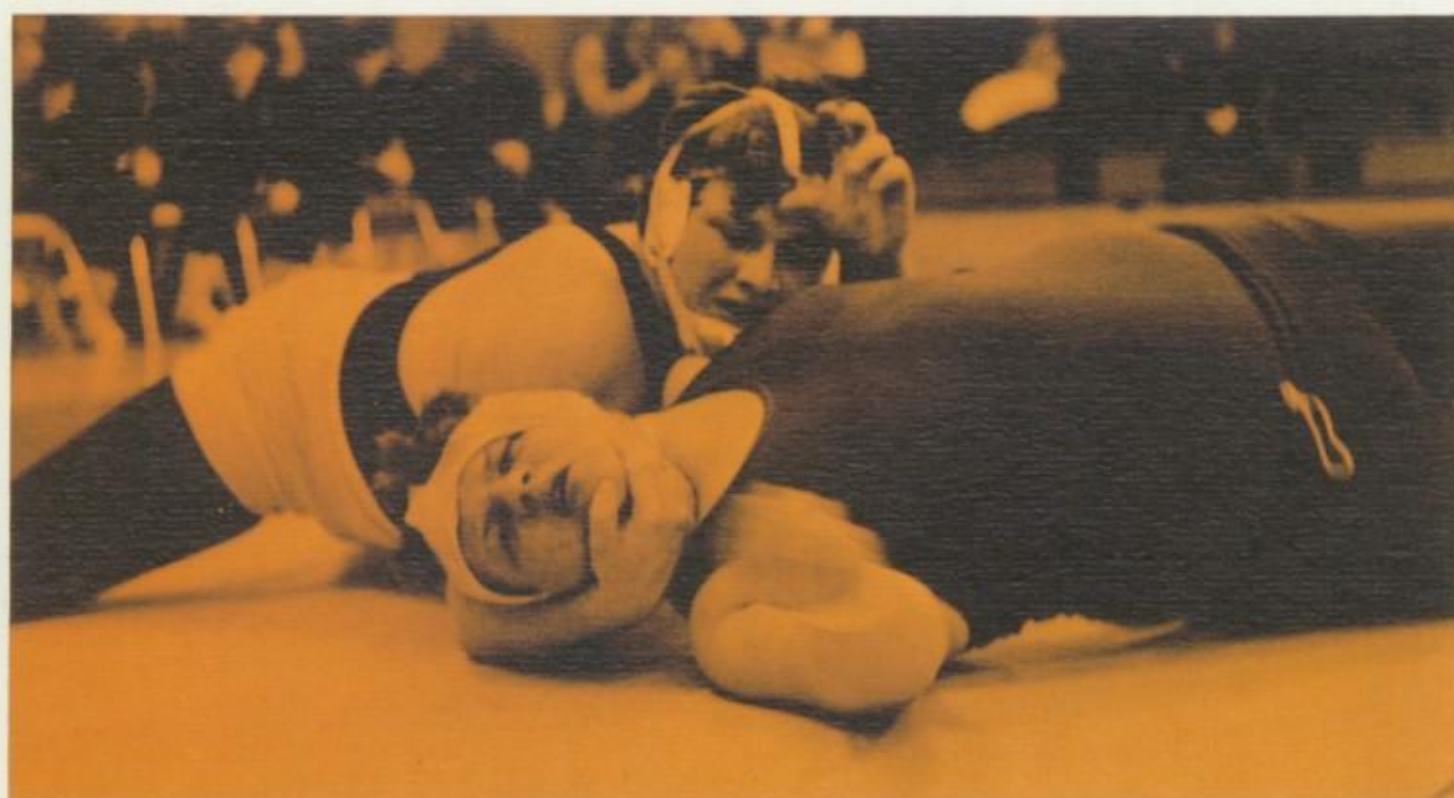

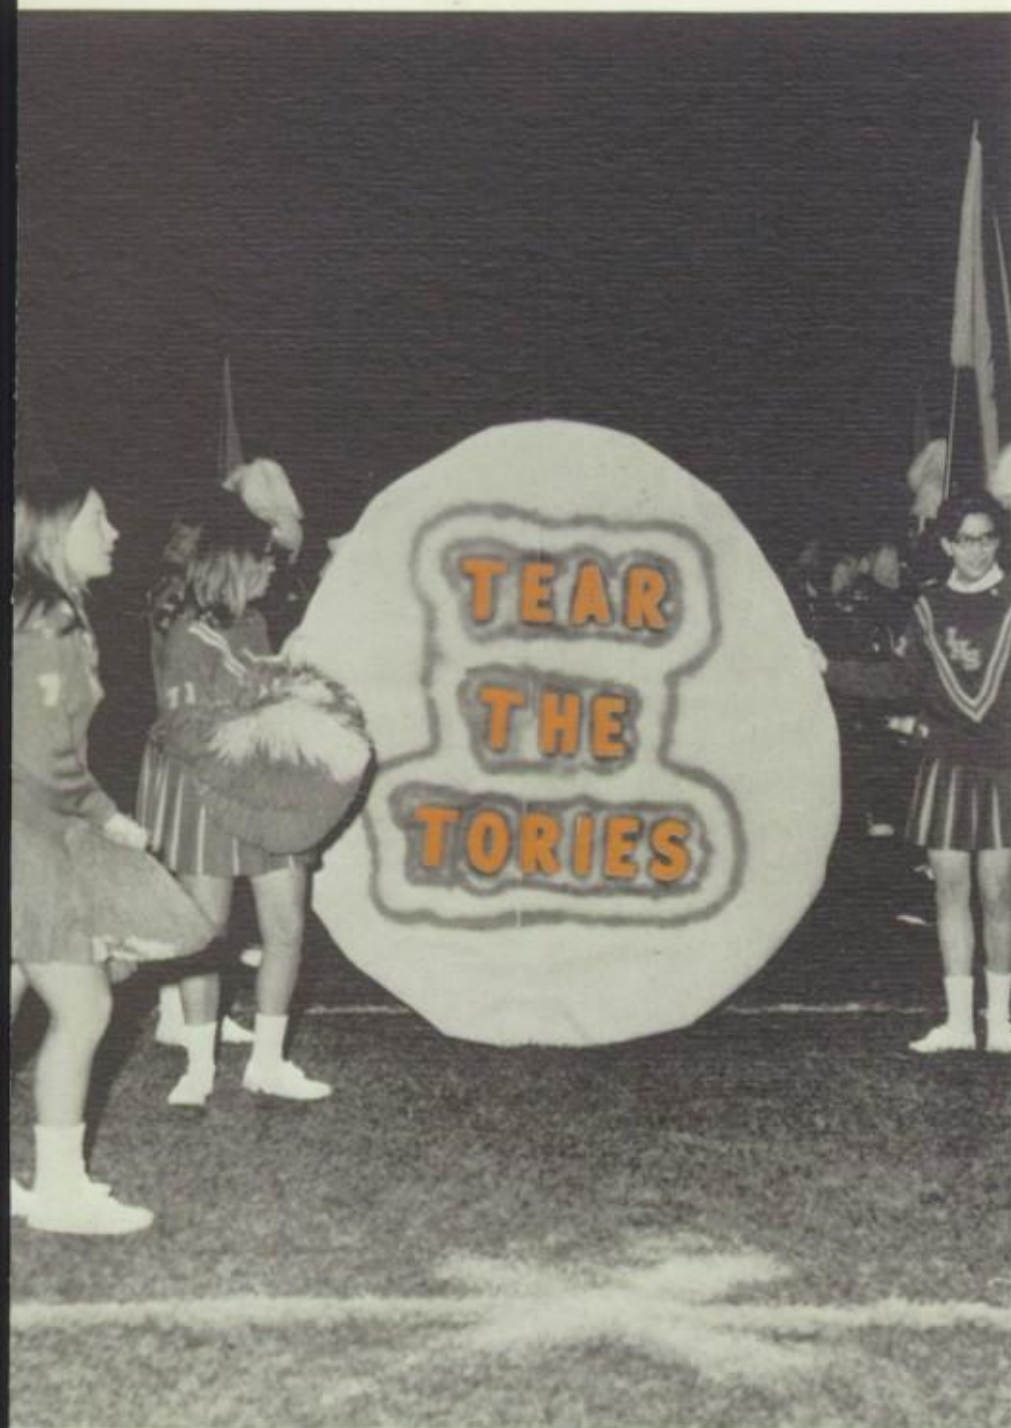

A Time For Us

Ida High School

Ida, Michigan

A time for us some day there'll be,

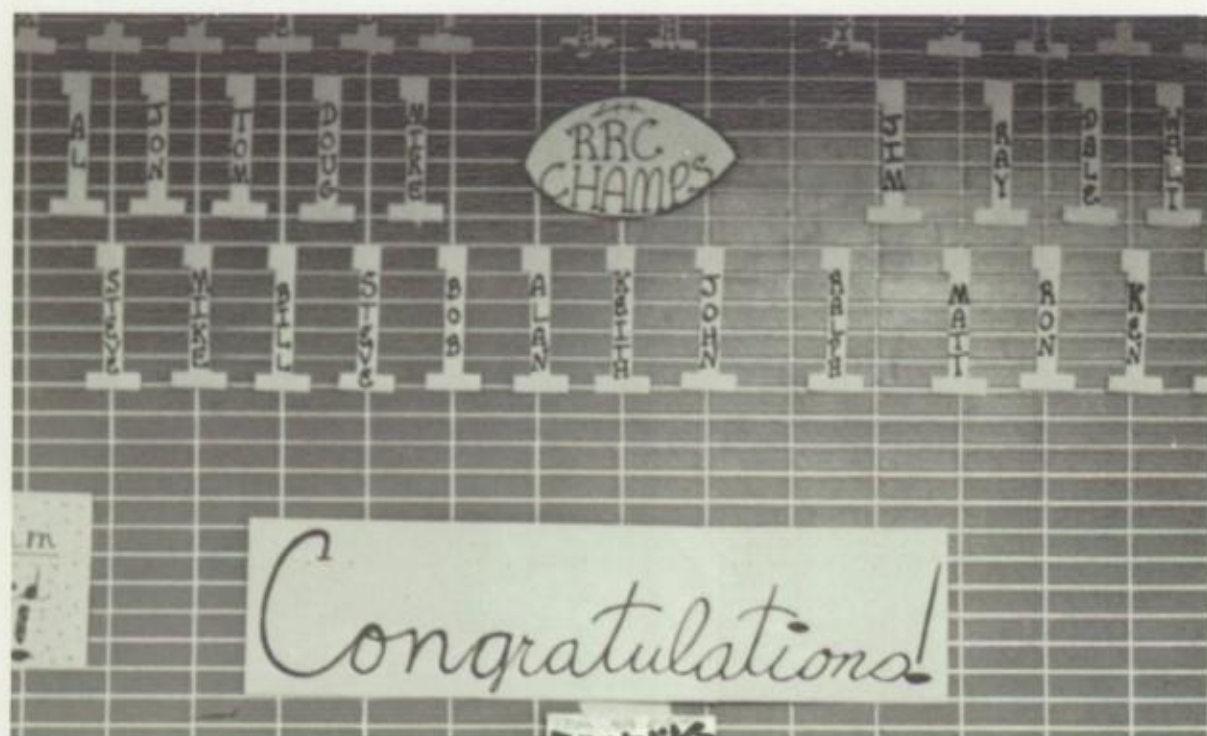

when chains are torn by courage born of a love that's free.

A time when dreams so long denied can flourish

as we unveil the love we now must hide.

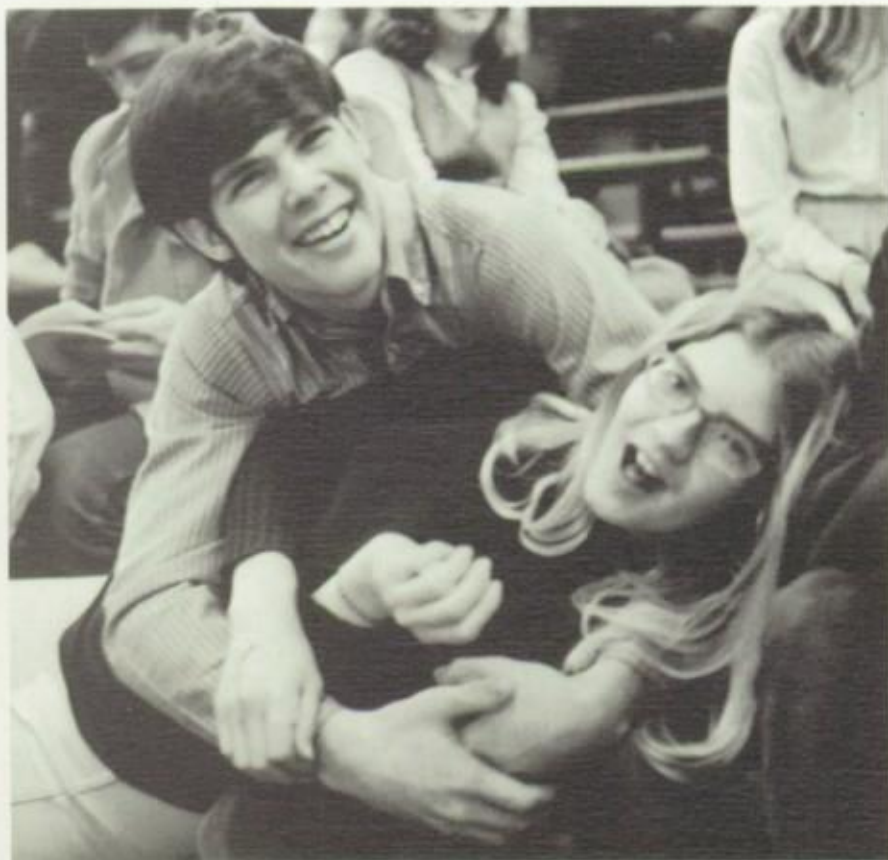

A time for us at last to see a life worth-while for you and me.

And with our love through tears and thorns

we will endure as we pass surely through ev'ry storm.

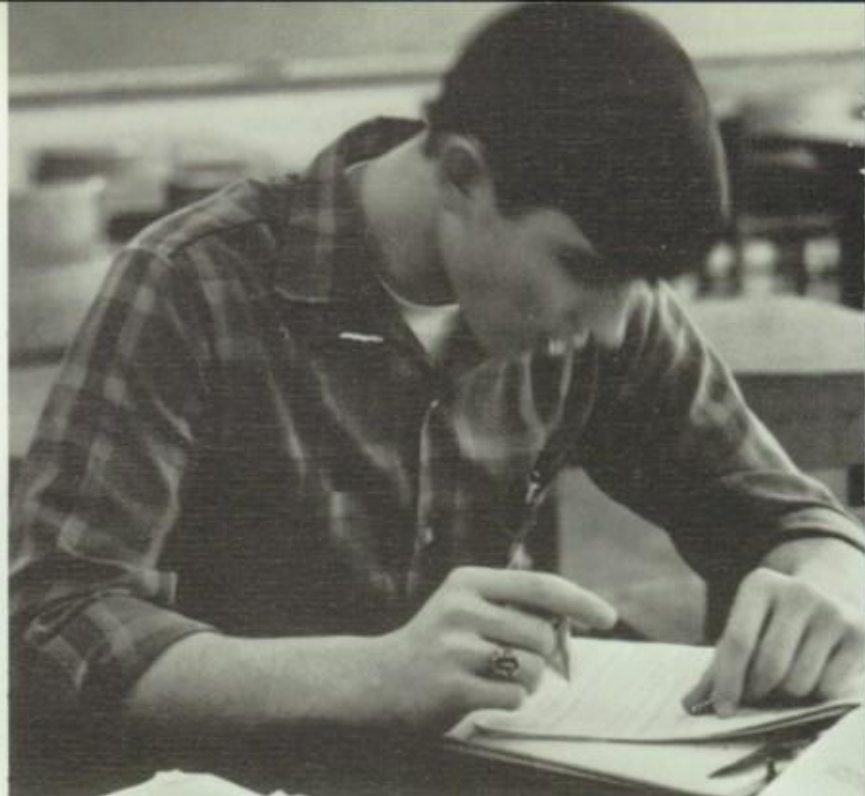

A time for us some day there'll be a new world,

A world of shining hope for you and me.

Homecoming

From queens to creative floats, from football to fans, are characteristics of Ida's time for homecoming. Homecoming, the highlight of the football season, gives students the chance to display their school spirit. From the floats to the cheers, they show how much they care. Homecoming is a proud and exciting hour for Ida.

Miss Jill Verdon was crowned Miss Varsity 1970-71 by last years' queen, Rocky Iott. Jill was chosen by the Varsity Club. Her court consisted of Sue Zimmerman and Karen Stotz. Jill was crowned at the homecoming game. Her escort was Jack Durbin. A time for joy and pride are thoughts which must have lingered in Jill's mind.

Our candidate for Miss Torch Drive this year was Miss Ida, Debbie Albring. Debbie was chosen by the students here at Ida High School and went to the Monroe County Torch Drive and kick-off for the United Fund. Her court was: Karen Stotz, senior; Pat Gotha, junior; and Linda Scheid, junior. We are very proud that we chose such a pretty and talented person to represent us in Monroe County.

The students show their support and enthusiasm.

Senior Play

"I made it. I made it!" rang through the halls of Ida High. Seventeen talented seniors found each had won a speaking part in the senior play, Ayn Rand's exciting Night of January 16th. Little did they know what was in store.

Seniors learned that playing a role was just a small part of producing a play. Committees had to be organized to start publicizing the play, to make and sell tickets, to find costumes and props. Paula found out it wasn't easy to make Mike Haas look like a judge or Elaine Kolokowski look like an angry middle aged Swede. But the make-up committee studied and worked and the outcome was amazing.

Randy Kuckuck, as senior stage manager and Dale Zorn as junior assistant gathered a crew and with hammers and nails and back breaking work they converted a bare stage into a court room.

Finally the night for the performance came, November 20th. The actors, stage crew and members of the various committees began to trickle in for a six thirty make-up call. Tension mounted as each player changed from high school senior to his role in a murder trial. When the final curtain was drawn at 10:15 and the gym was filled with the sound of thunderous applause, each senior knew that all the hard work paid off — it was indeed the finest senior play Ida had ever had.

Tell us about it!

When Cathy faints, she doesn't play!

If we should ever get friendly, just call me Joyce!

Men are sinners, women ought to know!

Dedication, devotion, dogged, and perseverance produced the Night of January 16th.

A little dab will do ya.

The pro applies the aging marks.
The finished product . . . an old hag.

Tom, Pat, and Dave rehearse a scene.

Without this thing, I'd be no place.

I've known you since you were a baby . . .
what's your name again?
Hello, have you located Harvey yet?

I've never kissed a lobster claw before.

Harvey is a 3 act farce about a middle aged man whose best friend is a 6 ft. invisible rabbit. Elwood P. Dowd, played by Arthur Gotha is supported by Jeanne Woelmer acting as his aging sister and by Jane Weeman acting as his niece. The three manage in one day to be admitted and released from Chumley's Rest Home; each complaining that each is insane. Happily for all involved, their problems and differences are resolved and the cast and crew of juniors realize that success is sweet.

Assemblies

A time for a different pace and scene was a time for assemblies this school year. The Student Council chose such interesting and humorous ones as "Skippy," a chimpanzee, Vic Hyde, a musician, and a nuclear and atomic presentation. Among school curriculum assemblies were Thespian admission, Monroe Community College choir, and presentation of the RRC trophy. Students feel that our assemblies are necessary as a break from ordinary class hours.

"It's something to be proud of."

"Give me that ball or you're coming to school on Saturdays!"

"Little Vic Hyde, come blow your horns."

"She's got the frizzy blues."

How do you do, my name is King Kong."

"Two of Ida's donkeys."

"The presentation of a well deserved trophy."

"The Monroe Community College Collegiate Singers perform for us."

Cream of the crop . . .

Peter Fonda never had it so good!

Valedictorian

Steve Oberski, selected on the basis of scholastic aptitude was named as the senior with the highest point average.

Salutatorian

Louann Denniss was named as Salutatorian, an honor awarded to the senior with the second highest grade point average.

Miss D.A.R.

Lorna Waldvogel was chosen as Miss D.A.R. Good Citizen for 1970-71. This honor is based on the characteristics of leadership, dependability, service, and patriotism. Miss D.A.R. was chosen by the faculty of Ida High School.

Fashion Show

Irene, a sophomore, models her dress.

"I've got butterflies in my stomach."

A lovely dress modeled by June.

Darlene, models her creation for the Fashion Show.

Mary's Funky Fashion.

It's the time for creativity and pride. The first semester of home economics is devoted to the art of the needle. As if by magic, yards of material and spools of thread become creations of achievement. This achievement is displayed at the Funky Fashion Show organized entirely by the girls and Mrs. Barron.

F.F.A. Sweetheart Dance

Congratulations Barb!

Time for lace and smiles, ribbons and tears. The penny votes are being counted . . . one, two, three. For the third and final time the candidate from the class of '71 hears her name announced. With the crown newly set upon her hair, our queen is ready for her year long reign.

The beauty of three goddesses.

Above — Flowers, smiles, and lace make five pretty girls.

Below — Try to set the night on fire . . .

Elaine was announced queen at halftime of the Ida-Sand Creek game.

Snowball Dance

Our new 1971 Snowball Queen.

Candidates for queens were from left to right, Mary, Vicki, Lynne and Elaine.

A time for the annual Snowball Dance as Elaine Kolakowski drifted down the court to become our third annual Snowball Queen. Elaine wore a red velvet dress iced in white trim. Elaine, and Alan Stubleski, her escort, were chosen by the student body. Her court consisted of Mary Opferman and Chad Hehl, freshman, Vicki Cronenwett and Carl Perkins, sophomores, and Lynne Stuart and Steve Montri, juniors.

Organizations

Seniors

Advisors — Miss Sheehan, Mr. Major, Mrs. Ostrowski, Miss Rueter, Mr. Shilliday, Mrs. Rennie, Mr. Weeman.

As the last few grains of sand filter through, the seniors prepare for their departure.

Early in the fall, the college-bound apply at their chosen homes for the next four years and others start their training for working professions. Senior pictures are taken. Refreshments are sold at basketball games. As spring comes around senior week is held. One day for dressing up; one day for goofing; one day for working.

These soon become memoirs of the past. Time has finally run out. Graduation is here. The class of "71" is just a memory.

If you listen closely enough in the dimly lit halls, faint voices can still be heard calling: "We are the seniors, seniors are we . . ."

Juniors

The time for juniors! September when they entered the world of the upper-classman. The year began in full swing when the new class rings arrived. During the year the responsibilities for sponsoring the after-game dances fell as in the past, on the juniors. Spring was also busy. The Class of "72" as a whole produced a play, "Harvey." They honored the senior class at the Junior-Senior Banquet. How as the sand dwindles, they look forward to being next year's seniors.

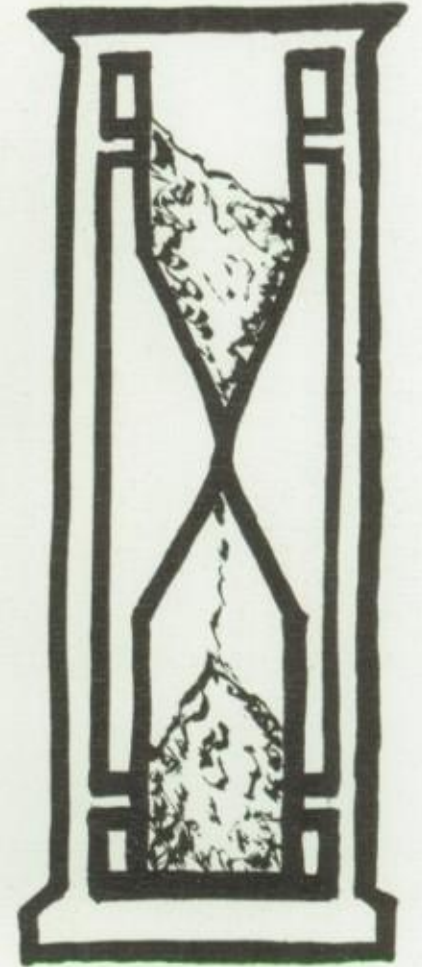

Advisors — Mr. Hartwick, Mrs. Weisbaum, Mrs. Waldhantz, Mr. Mantei, Mr. Whitehead, Mrs. Cowan.

Sophomores

Advisors — Mr. Dick, Mr. Overholser, Mr. Radscheid, Mrs. Hurdle, Miss Austin.

Glancing at the hour glass we can see the sophomores are in their second year of high school. This class built and proudly exhibited the winning float at the homecoming game. Crisp apples were sold at home football games. The highlight of the year was the ordering of class rings in the spring. These will arrive next fall to mark the beginning of two years as an upperclassman.

Freshmen

A time for new experiences. The freshman began the year with plenty of these. Quickly adjusting to the high school they sponsored an ice skating party and a dance. They also held a raffle at which articles of celebrities were raffled off. This brought to a close the first of what will be four very exciting years.

Advisors — Mr. Childers, Mrs. Barron, Mrs. Hoag, Mrs. Sebold, Mr. Bradley, Mr. VanWagner.

Eighth Grade

The sand in the hour glass measures 8th grade. With high hopes yet a little fearfully they await their transformation into high school students.

Advisors — Mrs. Donahoe, Mrs. Koester, Mr. Wright, Mr. Loughney, Mr. Murdock.

Officers — J. Vellequette — V. Pres., D. Scott — Pres., S. Dunsmore — Treas., B. Wertenberger — Sec.

Seventh Grade

Advisors — Miss Heatherly, Miss Fowler, Mr. Miller, Mrs. Shafer, Mrs. Schmidt.

Officers — P. Deland — V. Pres., C. Sedelbauer — Sec., S. Opfermann — Treas., C. Hehl — Pres.

With a year of experience behind them, the 7th graders began 1970-71 with bright anticipation. On a Saturday afternoon the class went to Cinema 1 to see "Scrooge." They also gave a dance in February. They look forward to being the upper-classmen of the junior high next year.

Advisors — Miss Carter, Mr. Straub, Mr. Kevwitch, Mr. Campbell, Mr. Pazdzior (N.P.), Mrs. LaVoy (M.P.).

A full hour glass promises time for fun and experiences. In October a Halloween party was held and square dancing and games were enjoyed by all. In the spring another party was held to close a year that was a delightful introduction to life in the intermediate school.

Enthusiasm is the word to describe the student council of 1970-1971. In addition to the annual activities (selling candy, supporting the March of Dimes Bread Drive, overseeing the Homecoming activities, sponsoring the magazine drive, and planning assemblies) this year's council organized a "Spirit Day", purchased a pottery wheel for the art department, worked to get vending machines, and brought student demands before the Administration.

The student council has been extremely generous in offering financial support to school clubs and organizations.

We believe that during the academic year 1970-1971 the Student Council has accomplished much and has in fact been one of the most successful councils in the history of Ida High School.

One of the most active organizations in the school is the Senior Band. This year, the class participated in parades, marching contests, and concerts.

The Dance Band gives the band students the opportunity to perform popular music. They perform at dances, concerts, ball games, at the annual Cabaret and make up the pit band for plays and musicals.

The Jr. High Band had a very fulfilling year marching in parades and during the half-time of one football game; performing at spring, summer and winter concerts; and attending district and state contests.

The Cadet Band which is composed of sixth and seventh grade students, is a training band that prepares the students for Junior Band. They must attain a certain musical achievement before entering Junior Band. The Cadet Band performed in two concerts and several assemblies for the student body.

The Streaksations is a singing group made up of students in grades ten through twelve. Any student can audition for the group and from these people fourteen are selected. Practice is held before school on Tuesday and Friday. The Streaksations performed for civic organizations, the Christmas program, the Variety Show, and the Cabaret.

The Junior Bluestreak Choir aids in producing good singing habits and advancing the aesthetic appreciation for the art of singing in junior high students. They display their talent at concerts, assemblies and various other school functions.

This sixth grade chorus promotes the enjoyment and rewards of group singing. It also gives the needed experience to become a member of the Jr. High Chorus. This chorus further promotes and enriches the singing background of the student. Both of these choruses help the students to develop an appreciation for the art of music.

It's the time for cheers and school spirit. Our varsity cheerleaders are the ones that start these things ticking. The hands start rolling as our cheerleaders hang inspiring posters and plan invigorating pep rallies. With their boundless vim and vigor they point the Bluestreaks toward the hour of victory. At the time of completion they cook and serve a spaghetti dinner for our renowned athletes. Victory! Vict . . .

The Reserve Cheerleaders promote spirit for the Reserve football and basketball teams by cheering at games and pep rallies. They sell ice cream to earn money for camp and for new uniforms. They also worked in the dunking booth at the Ida Homecoming.

The seventh and eighth grade cheerleaders support the junior high basketball teams. They work hard at organizing junior high pep assemblies under the supervision of Mrs. Donahoe.

The team warms up

The first year of competition in cross-country was a time for victory and trial for all boys involved. Cross-country requires a 2-2½ mile all-terrain track. Seven runners compete in the race. The first five to come in receive points and the team with the fewest points is the winner. Mr. Hammons awarded six letters to these runners. The team had 9 meets and regionals.

Our Father who art in Heaven . . .

The wrestling team made a significant contribution to Ida's fine overall sports program in 1970-71. Led by undefeated Daryl Scott and Co-Captain George Davis, the Streaks finished a high third in an eight team tournament and won approximately half their dual meets. Karl Matthes and Ron Banas rounded out a Senior foursome who posted a composite 54 wins, 6 losses, and two draw record.

Underclassmen form a strong basis for next years team as wrestling has established itself as a sport with a future at Ida.

We, the Comet Staff, present to the members of Ida High School, a book of memories. In the future when you open this book it may illicit a chuckle or bring a tear. You may wonder who's the cute blonde with the crown or what was the name of that basketball player. The memories of even your best friend may dim, but in your mind the echo of an Ida cheer will never fade. The Yearbook Staff hopes that they had a part in bringing back fond memories of "them good old days".

Oh boy . . . this is my ninth sale!

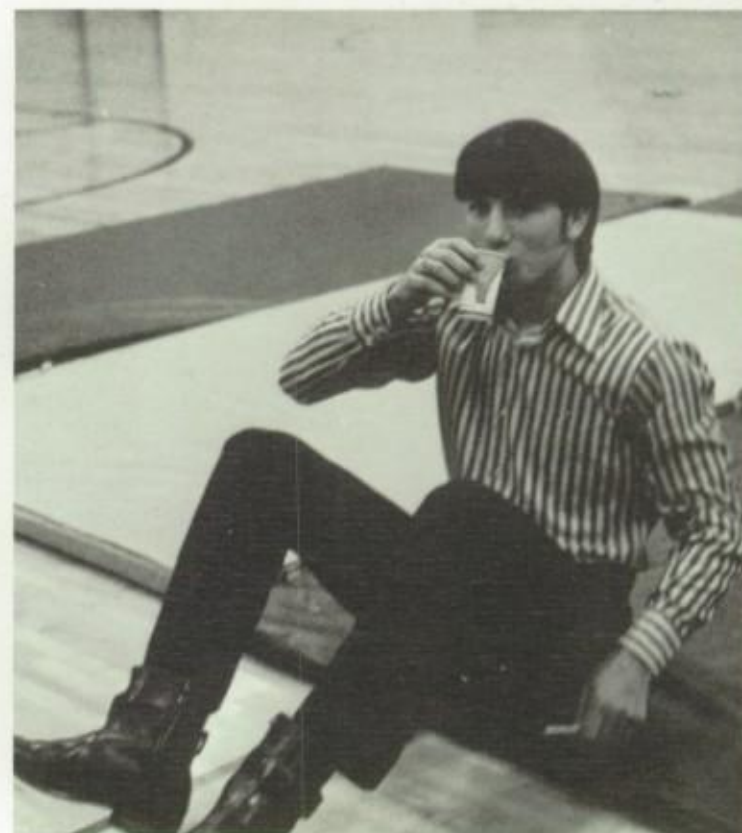

Our editor checks over her ladder.

Above — Gee how I love to have my picture taken!
Below — This yearbook drives me to drink.

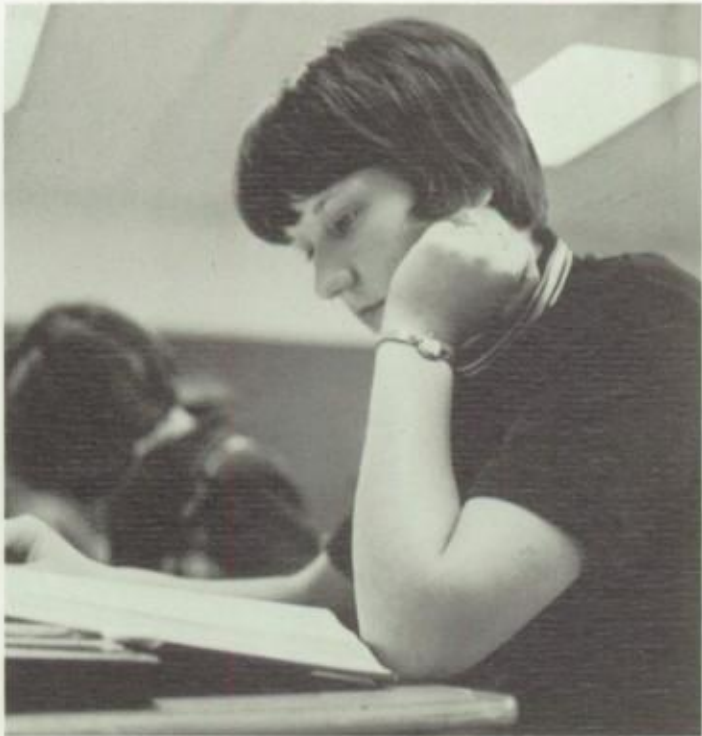

This copy writing makes me sleep sitting up.

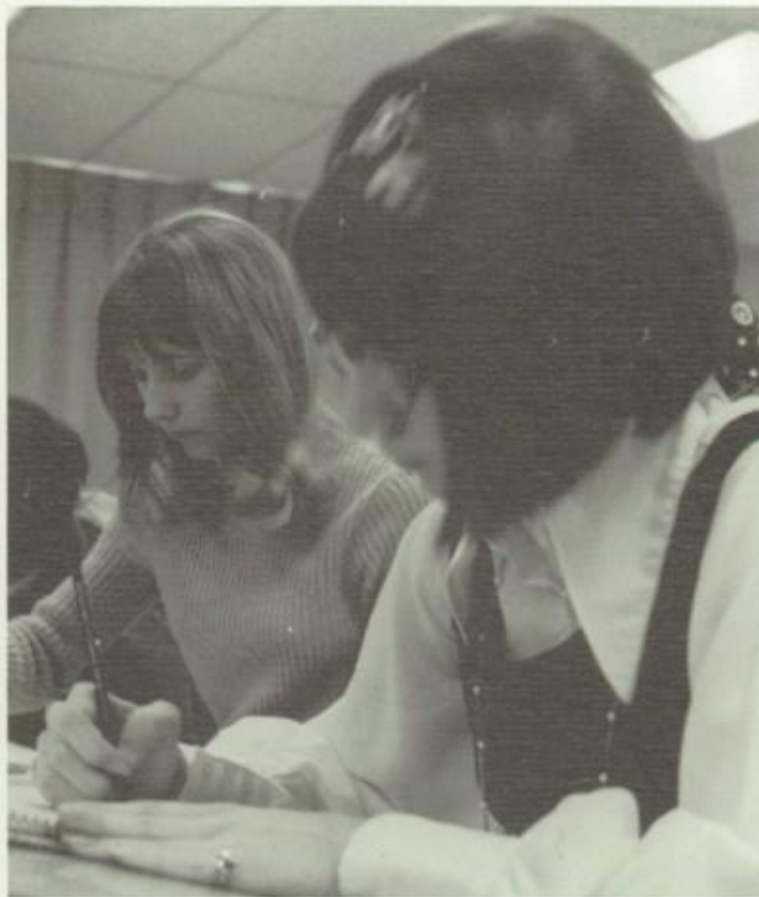

I see you down there!!

Above — Carol picks up tips on how to get sales.
Below — If someone wouldn't have broken this cropper . . .

Will we have all these headaches next year?

Above — Norma and Marlene break all records on ad sales.

Below — Be brave Wart, you'll be a senior next year.

Up, up, and away!

This years' Ida High Track team had a reasonably fine spring season as they led themselves into a 5-5 position for the regular meets. The 1971 team finished third at the league meet. Keith Kreger and Rex Sortor broke Bluestreak records in the shot put and long jump. Coach Tom Overholser was director for all track and field events.

Our 1971 Spring Jr. High track and field team won two of their five meets. Coached by Mr. Larry Hammons, they also finished sixth in the Tecumseh Relays and third at the River Raisin meet, held here at Ida. Events included distance relays, hurdles, shot put and pole vault. Considering that ten teams participated at invationals and we finished third, our future senior high track team has done very well.

Strike three!!

Alan Stubleski, Steve Montri, and Matt Watkins finished as first team all league representing us in baseball this year. Second team participant went to Rodney Kolakowski, and third team was earned by Carl Perkins, Bill Madden, and Tom Shafer. Coach Radscheid led the team to a 13-5 victory, fourteen of them conference. Our boys have given us pride in the fact that they are successful in hitting, pitching, and fielding.

You coach this inning and I'll play 2nd.

What intelligent-looking fans?!

Action from behind.

What! No Band-aids?

Golf

Ida's timetable of sports has been enlarged this year with the addition of golf. With the help of Coach Murdock, students were able to participate in a phase of sports different from previous years at Ida High. We are confident that the experience of this past year will produce an even finer golf team in the 1971-72 season.

Oops! Missed again.

I couldn't have done better myself.

Matt practices putting.

Mr. Murdock — coach, T. Aichler, M. Lark, C. Kolakowski, M. Stotz, M. Watkins, D. Skaggs, S. Lowe, B. Kalte, J. DeLand, R. Kreger.

Girls' Spring Sports

Row 1 — A. Turner, D. Williamson, C. Beck, S. Knapp, P. Durbin, K. Iott, R. Jones, R. Stotz. Row 2 — V. Holtz, K. Matthes, N. Pozarzycki, D. Kreps, M. Smith.

Miss Sue Carter coached the 1971 Girls' Track and Field Events this spring. The girls, several from every grade, participated in such events as 50 and 100 yard dashes, hurdles, shot put, standing and high jump, and also the softball throw. The seventeen-girl team finished third in competition at the St. Mary's and Jefferson Invationals.

Despite the fact that our '71 Softball Team played only four games, the girls put forth energetic efforts and competed with teams from Britton and Blissfield. The Ida team was composed of eleven girls from various grades. Umpires, managers, and scorekeepers assisted the group.

Row 1 — J. Cooper, H. Devine, K. Rettig, A. Turner, S. Knapp, A. LaFrance. Row 2 — M. Smith, B. Roy, C. Beck, T. Smith, R. Stotz, D. Heck, D. Masson — scorekeeper.

Activities of the Class of 1971

The class of '71 thinks that there is a time for everything. They voiced their concern for our world by holding an Earth Day. Many rode bikes or horses for miles to cut down on pollution. Dramatic skits were given and litter was collected. Then, came the first week of May which was Senior week. Their spirit was again shown by dressing up, dressing down, and working. That senior class is sure involved!

The end result of Mrs. Rennie's instruction!
Being a Senior sure makes you feel old!

Thespian Spring Activities

Now you have to sign the marriage contract!

You can put the shotgun away now!

Forget it Rabbit! Go chase the cat awhile.

As spring time rolls around we find the Serendipity Players right in the "spring" of things. Their activities included a regular ol' hoot n' hollar Sadie Hawkins dance. Being more formal at a later program, the players who had accumulated enough points were accepted into the International Thespian Association.

Prom — We've Only Just Begun . . .

On the eve of April 14, many of the Ida students and their guests arrived at the Commodore Perry Motor Inn for an enchanting evening. This was the spotlight for the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom with the theme "We've Only Just Begun." After months of planning, everyone was able to enjoy a delicious meal and melodious music which was provided by the "Night Hawks." For the Juniors — experience was gained. For the Seniors — another evening of memories to add to their already bursting collection of events.

I've come to praise Caesar, not to bury him.

You're stepping on my toe!

I even had the florist take the thorns out of the roses.

Above — The winners of the coveted Sucker Award. Below — Lorna swears in the new Student Council President.

Ida High School gave recognition to her outstanding students on Honor's Day. Tribute was given to scholars and school leaders.

The 1971 Senior class presented their cherished gifts to the Juniors and faculty members, all in fun, of course.

The yearbook staff would like to congratulate each student of Ida High School for being outstanding in his own individual way.

Fine Arts Festival

. . . and he huffed and he puffed

The third little pig built a strong house of bricks.

An example of hard work and dedication?!

Art time is an enjoyable evening at Ida High School. During the course of an evening our well-practiced band gave concerts. To some popular tunes our Serendipity Players again gave a flawless performance of acting. Then at a viewer's leisure, he could stroll through the numerous art exhibits that displayed the well-worth mentioning talent of the art students.

Graduation . . .

Daryl Scott, Super Star!

Buz-z-z. The alarm has just gone off. It's time to go out into the world — as adults. The clock can never be set back, but our hearts can. In our hearts we'll feel the bittersweet moments again and again that were experienced at ol' Ida High. Time will separate friends and others may be forgotten, but time cannot change memories. Time cannot wear away the education that was filed away nor change the person that was formed. Ida High School will always be a part of them.

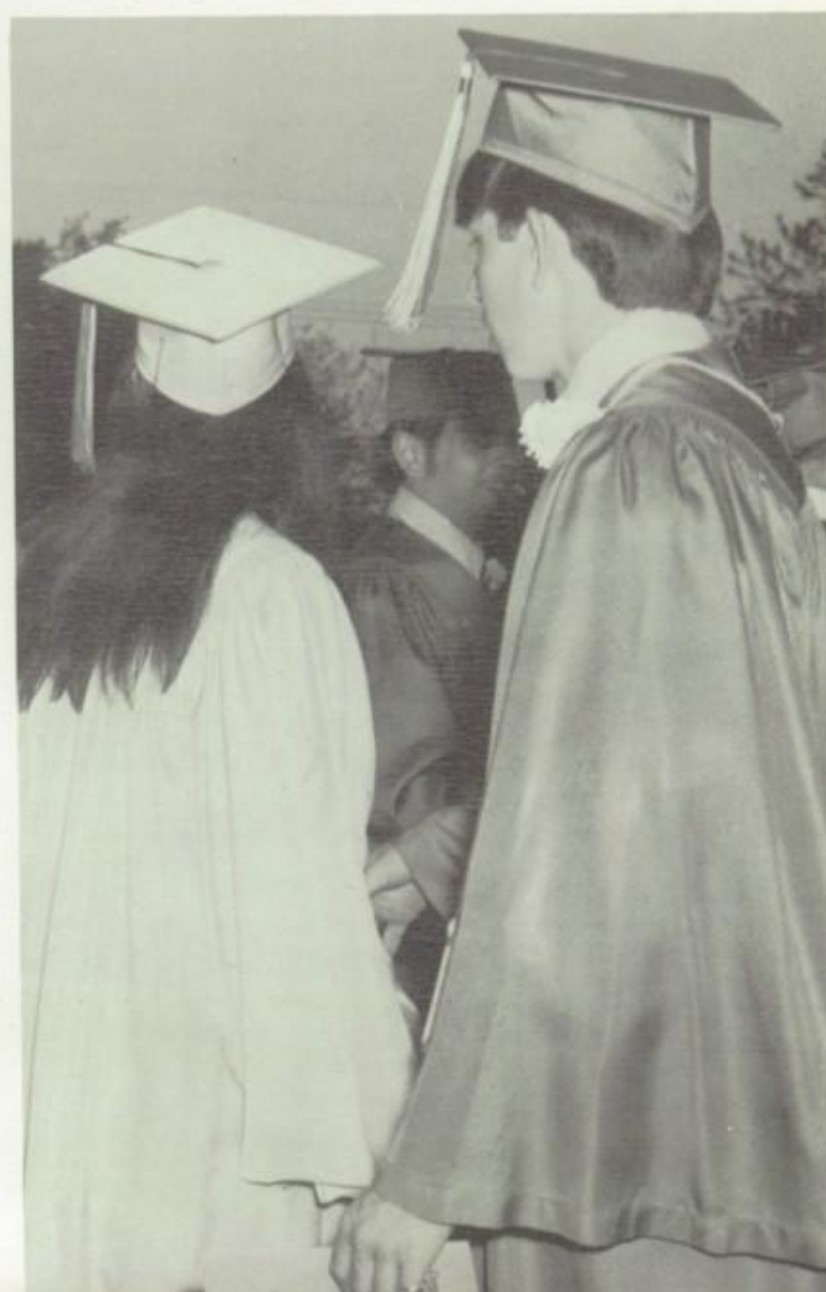

Above — I think I have the wrong color of robe!
Left — In thirty minutes . . . The Draft House!!
